FISH FOR THE OTHER FELLOW

Gunter Advises Association to Take Care of Commercial Fishermen as Well as Sportsmen

HE TALKS CO-OPERATION

Fish Expert Says It Cannot Be Secured Without Treating All Alike

(By F. E. Gunther)

Editor Tribune:—

Permit me to make another suggestion to the game and fish protection association:

We want game and fish laws for all, and co-operation of all hunters and fishermen, whether commercial or sportsmen.

As long as the commercial fishermen and the sportsmen are at odds, each will fight those features of law that benefit the other and each will succeed to such an extent that whatever law is passed will not be efficient, or for the greatest good of the greatest number.

The association has just requested a large number of game fry, of various sorts, to be put into adjacent waters, and the government has responded liberally. Good, indeed! That is what the association is for, and that class of work means good fishing in the future.

Just for the Asking

But the association made no application for coarse or commercial fish fry. Isn't this essential? We want the co-operation of the commercial fishermen. How can we get it if we do not give them half the loaf? See, it doesn't hurt the fishing of the sportsmen to do something to help commercial fishing; it simply requires a little interest and effort. The waters are here for the benefit of all and when we ask the state and the federal government to give us try to plant in the waters we must consider that the commercial fishermen are paying their share of the taxes to bring this about as well as others. If we want the assistance of the commercial fishermen to carry out the work of the association, we ought to do something to help their business and also give them a chance to work for the protection of the fish from all points of view.

Commissioner Bowers of the United States government in his annual report declares that there should be the closest co-operation in fish cultural work between the federal and state authorities, and the same should apply to local conditions.

They Would Help

The commercial fishermen are charged largely with responsibility for there being less fish in the waters than in former years. It is the writer's opinion that if the commercial fishermen were given an opportunity to have their business taken care of and were asked to work with the association, they would be as willing workers along the line of fish saving as could be found. They are, as a rule, good citizens when it comes to other questions, and they would be on this if given a chance. It would seem to be a little like class legislation to have the Mississippi river made a stream entirely for the benefit of the hook fishermen and no benefit to the commercial fishermen to make a living for himself. In order to make myself plain on this question I will give my idea of a few reforms that would result in a benefit to all:

Some Suggestions

Regulate the size of mesh large enough to allow the small fish to escape and to grow up.

Prohibit seining during the spawning season.

Plant all the young fish possible to get, putting fish in such waters as are the best suited to the different kinds.

Make laws that will benefit all rather than a few.

While I am in the fish business, I am also a citizen and will use every effort possible to bring about results that will help perpetuate and build up an industry as well as protect the game fish. There is no doubt in the writer's mind that, if the association would convince the commercial fishermen that its members will use every effort to help commercial fishing as well as game fishing, they (the commercial fishermen) will join the association and co-operate loyally and intelligently in the work in hand.

Should Reciprocate

A few words to the commercial fishermen and their friends. It is not reasonable to expect others to assist in building up, and taking care of the commercial side of the fish industry unless some effort is also extended by the commercial fishermen. It is well to figure to help protect one's own business; therefore I would advise that every commercial fishermen make it a point to join this association and attend the meetings. By doing this you will not only help yourselves, but will tend to harmonize the work as outlined by the association, thus building up the industry and assisting in getting laws passed which will eventually be a source of benefit to the entire state.

Jailed For Begging And "Being Sassy"

Thirty days in the county jail for begging and five days for "being sassy" was the sentence imposed upon John J. Ross, who is alleged to have succeeded in procuring food from a grocery store for several days through an extraordinary display of "nerve."

According to the story of complainants, Ross made a practice of going into the grocery store nearly every day and demanding food, and showing such persistence that it was possible to refuse. On one occasion the amount received was not satisfactory, whereupon Ross aired his opinion of "stingy people" in such unmistakable terms that his load increased immediately.

Telephone calls were sent to the police station on each occasion, but Ross always managed to disappear before the police arrived. Yesterday he prolonged his visit, with the result that he was finally arrested.

He was arraigned before Judge John Brindley this morning and sentenced to spend thirty-five days in the county jail.

WOMAN FATALLY CUT BY COUSIN

Hatchet Is Weapon of Brutal Assault; Police Allege Her Cousin Is Guilty Man

NO HOPE OF HER RECOVERY

Body Covered with Gashes and Brain Is Exposed; Surgeons Say She Cannot Live

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—Her body a mass of deep gashes and her skull split so that the brain is exposed, Miss Anna Miller, 32, is dying at the Emergency hospital, following the finding of her mutilated form in the kitchen of her home at 7 a. m. today. Near the woman lay a heavy hatchet. The blood-bespattered kitchen indicated the woman fought a terrific struggle with her assailant.

The police have started a search for Albert Koehler, a cousin of the Miller woman, whom they charge with the crime. According to neighbors and the police Koehler called at the Miller home early today and quarreled violently with the cousin who finally ordered him from the house. Koehler, it was alleged, picked up a hatchet from the kitchen table and after committing the murderous assault fled from the scene.

The injured woman can live but a short time, according to the hospital surgeons.

The injured woman was alive at noon today, but hospital surgeons said that she could not live until tonight.

FIND BOMB; IT EXPLODES

CHICAGO, March 21.—Three firemen, members of the crew of the tug Graeme Stewart, were badly hurt today when a bomb they found floating in the river blew up as they were examining it. The three men, Maurice Murphy, Henry Newburg, and Bryce Millar, were taken to the hospital. Millar was burned and cut about the face and it is feared his sight was destroyed.

CYCLONE HITS TEXAS

ASQUITH RULE IS NEAR BIG DEFEAT

Must Accede to Demands of Miners or Ministry Will Dissolve; the Strikers Make Ultimatum

BALFOUR ATTACKS THE BILL

Former Prime Minister Denounces Measure; Does Not Satisfy Either Side, He Says

LONDON, March 21.—The miners' federation today sent an ultimatum to the liberal government. Premier Asquith has been notified that if he refuses to accept the amendment proposed by the miners instituting the fixing by proposed law of the minimum scale for each district of not less than five shillings daily for an adult and two shillings for a minor working underground, the miners will refuse to abide by the law and will not go back to work Monday. If the government does not accept, the downfall of the Asquith ministry seems certain.

Probably the most unusual combination that has ever confronted a government is faced by the present ministry today. Heretofore its strongest supporters have been the labor members and the Irish Nationalists. Yet, it is these elements that today threaten the ministry's downfall. The labor members are unalterably opposed to the minimum wage bill as originally framed. A number of the nationalists side with them.

A combination of the conservatives, laborites and most of the nationalists would put the present government in the minority. Realizing this, the liberal papers throughout the country urge the government to compromise. There was a conference of the majority of the cabinet members today at which the situation was discussed. Whether a decision was arrived at regarding a future source of action could not be learned.

Balfour Opposes Bill

Declaring that the present situation growing out of the strike of the coal miners was the gravest in the history of the nation, former Premier Balfour, leader of the conservatives, moved in the house of commons today the rejection of the government minimum wage scale bill. He reviewed the measure which he characterized as extreme and unwise and in no way remedial and demanded that it be killed by the house of commons.

Balfour declared that the bill as introduced failed to meet the views of either the operators or the miners, and he said that the government erred greatly in attempting to rush an experimental law through without considering the effect it would have on the country's prosperity.

Answering the charge that he was trying to force the dissolution of parliament because he and his followers believed they would be material gainers through a new general election, Balfour said he did not desire dissolution at this time.

Balfour insisted that the dissolution of parliament now could have no good purpose and would simply add to the general confusion of an already critical situation.

"Let us discuss this bill calmly and fairly," he said, "and find out just what it means to the people. To push it to second reading by force of might is not fair to the public and will mean that the government fears that the real meaning of the measure might become known to the people of the country."

Asquith, however, moved the bill to second reading. It was expected this motion would carry, the labor members said they would not offer their amendments until this stage of the legislation has passed.

MILLIONAIRE LOST

PARIS, March 21.—All efforts to locate E. R. Thomas, the former New York banker, whose wife, Mrs. Linda Lee Thomas, formerly of Louisville, Ky., is suing for divorce, naming "Teddy" Morard, the dancer, as co-respondent, have failed. Thomas has not been seen in any of his favorite haunts here since the cable announcement of the filing of the divorce papers was received and it is believed that he has gone into seclusion in the Riviera or else is motoring in Switzerland. Friends of the former millionaire here say they do not believe he will contest the divorce suit.

GOES TO MOTHER

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—Mrs. Daisy Grace, accused of shooting her husband at their home in Atlanta, Ga., out under $7,500 bail, reached here early today and went to the home of Mrs. Martha E. Ulrich, her mother. She was accompanied by her attorney, J. A. Branch.

SNOW RECORD BROKEN

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 21.—With a fall of a foot of snow during the night, accompanied by a driving wind from the north, all records for the Des Moines weather bureau established in 1878 were broken.

Child Over 18 Is Included in the Tax

According to a ruling by the state tax commission given to J. E. Keizer over the long distance telephone yesterday, parents are not allowed to make deductions in their income tax statement for a child over 18 years of age unless the child is mentally or physically defective. The new law provides that $200 may be deducted for each child whom the parent is required by law to support. Many persons appear to be of the opinion that as long as the child is being supported by the parents, deductions are allowable in the income tax. Many parents are sending their sons and daughters away to school and have believed that they were allowed to deduct the $200 even though the child was over 18.

"This is an erroneous idea," said Mr. Keizer today. "I have held that children over 18 years were not exempt and the ruling of the commission confirm what I have told many who inquired about this matter."

NEITHER YIELDS; STRIKE CERTAIN

Miners and Operators Both Refuse to Concede Point in Demands; Still Arguing

SPLIT ON A TEN CENT RAISE

Miners Demand Mine Run Plan; Operators Declare All Coal Must Be Screened

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 21.—A nation-wide soft coal strike which will tie up indefinitely all the great business interests of America appeared more certain than ever today when the sixty-four soft coal operators and miners from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Illinois came to midday adjournment. Neither side had swayed from its original position, although the conference has now been in session ten hours and dozens of members have presented their arguments.

Raise Demanded
The first clause of the miners' thirteen demands is the thing which is being thrashed out. This clause is the demand that all miners be paid on a run-of-the-mine basis rather than on the screened coal basis, which is used at present. This screened coal basis pays the miners ninety-five cents a ton for all coal which does not pass through an inch and a half screen. The run-of-the-mine basis would pay them for all coal, large and small, at the rate of 77.85 cents a ton, which would be a ten cent increase over the present basis.

"We will not recede from our demand for a mine run basis. We are going to have it," said President John P. White, of the United Mine Workers, immediately after the meeting.

"We will never give in to a run-of-the-mine basis; we cannot afford to," said Chairman Kohlen of the operators.

Big Business Interested
Big business all over the country is so vitally interested in the outcome of the coal men's negotiations here that many firms have representatives right on the spot to report to them the events of each day's session. It is said that the Steel trust, the Westinghouse company, and the General Electric company all have men on the job.

These companies realize that if a strike is declared the present high prices of coal will go still higher, and that, in that event, as much coal as possible ought to be bought at once. But they also know that if peace is proclaimed, the bottom will drop out of present prices and to purchase coal under such conditions would be to commit financial suicide.

MILL FIREMEN STRIKE

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 21.—Demanding a wage increase of 15 per cent thirty stationary firemen at the American Woolen company's Wood, Ayer and Washington mills struck today. Unless the differences are settled within two days, these mills will have to shut down. The 700 weavers at the Wood mill who struck yesterday alleging discrimination in favor of those who did not strike in January, were back at work today, concessions having been made.

SANATORIUM WOULD PREVENT CONTAGION

The white plague will not be vanquished except by preventing further inoculation and contagion. No agency will be so effective in stamping out the sources of contagion as a sanatorium where advanced cases of tuberculosis can be taken care of.

FISHING CLUB TO URGE NEW LAWS

Executive Committee Requests All Interested in Proposed Amendments to Give Ideas

LORING WILL SPEAK HERE

Will Be Able to Furnish Information on Legislation in the Other States

• • • • • All sportsmen, market fishermen and others who are desirous of obtaining amendments to fish and game laws of Wisconsin, are requested to send their ideas on this question by mail or take them in person to Dr. A. T. Rasmussen, president of the La Crosse Hunting and Fishing association, immediately.

J. Alden Loring, explorer, hunter and head of the scientific department of game and fish of the Smithsonian institute at Washington, will speak in La Crosse March 30 on "The Propagation of Fish and Game." Mr. Loring is employed by the American Game Protective and Propagation association and will come to La Crosse under the auspices of the La Crosse County Hunting and Fishing association. Following a meeting of the executive committee of the La Crosse association last night, President A. T. Rasmussen wired the national society to send the speaker here March 30. J. P. Bird and Ernest Horner were named as a committee to make further arrangements for the lecture. Mr. Loring will illustrate his lecture with stereopticon views and it is expected that a large crowd of sportsmen and others interested in the protection of game, fish and song birds will take advantage of the entertainment to gather useful knowledge of the work.

Mr. Loring will explain, among other things, how fish and game is protected and propagated in other states and countries. He has had much experience along this line and it is expected that he will be able to give the local association valuable pointers in regard to proposed legislation.

Will Work on Proposed Laws

It was decided at the meeting of the executive committee last night to call another meeting next Monday evening for the purpose of outlining plans for the offering of new legislation at the special session of the state legislature which meets April 30. Among the points mentioned in Governor McGovern's statement when he called a special session of the legislature was proposed legislation in the fish and game department and it is the plan of the local association to be on the ground when it is taken up.

President Rasmussen, when interviewed today said that the committee was anxious to secure the co-operation of all persons who have ideas on the proposed legislation. In order that the proposed new laws be unjust to no class of fishermen he asked all interested to submit their ideas to the executive committee either in writing or in person before the next meeting Monday evening. It is the hope of the committee that the market fishermen, sportsmen and all others interested make known how they stand in the matter.

Realizing that there are hundreds of market fishermen on the river between the Iowa line and Lake Pepin, who are interested in the activities of the association and close observers of the operations and effects of the present fish and game laws, Dr. Rasmussen is particularly desirous of obtaining their co-operation.

The committee will outline the various needs and questions that are taken to them before the meeting and present them to the meeting of the association which will be called probably next week. It is the hope of the committee that the matter will be put into such shape at this meeting that it can be taken to the legislature. Owing to the shortness of the time before the special session it is necessary that whatever steps are taken be settled at once.

THREATENS WIFE; JAILED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—Forty days' imprisonment, with an initial ten days' diet of bread and water was the sentence imposed upon Carl Linde for deserting his wife, Harriet, and going to Cleveland.

Linde's arrest was hastened by a letter which he wrote his wife in a spirit of bravado shortly after reaching Cleveland. The letter, which figured in the trial, read:

"I thought I would write to give you a chance to get your revenge by having me pinched. Try it." The letter was signed "The Crook."

KILLED; FEARED ARREST

NORFOLK, Va., March 21.—The police of Hampton alleged today that Mrs. Ida Belote, mother of eight children, was murdered by Virginia Christian, a negro, because the latter feared she was to be arrested charged with stealing clothing from the Belote home. The negro is under arrest and the authorities claim to have a complete case against her.

Fog Holds Up the President's Private Car

NEW YORK, March 21.—President Taft slept serenely from 1 to 8 o'clock in his private car on a siding in the upper end of the Grand Central station. Outside a line of police kept vigilance and waved back those who approached. Nearby, Secretary Hillis and officials of the New Haven and the Pennsylvania debated the best means of transferring the sleeping chief executive from the station to where he could continue his journey to the national capital, interrupted by a dense fog, which tied up the local harbor last night.

Awakened for a moment and asked what he wanted done, the president referred the matter to his secretary and dropped back into tranquil slumber. After discussing the matter with the railroad officials, Hillis had another private car sent into the Pennsylvania station and sent for a half dozen automobiles. When the president awakened and dressed the party was taken in the machines across to the Pennsylvania and the new car was attached to the first fast train for the south.

INTRODUCE WOOL REDUCTION AGAIN

Bill Similar to One Taft Vetoed Last Summer, Is Introduced by Underwood

COMMITTEE ENDORSES BILL

Ways and Means Committee of the House Approves; Some Opponents Won Over

WASHINGTON, March 21.—A bill reducing the duty on wool identical with the measure vetoed by President Taft last summer was introduced in the house today by Majority Leader Underwood. The ways and means committee, at a meeting today, endorsed the measure and determined again to attempt to put it up the president.

Several members who originally favored free raw wool were won over to the twenty per cent duty in the bill showing that $21,000,000 estimated loss by free wool could not be made upon other tariff schedules. The committee decided that no caucus on the bill would be necessary.

"After full consideration of the tariff board's wool report," said Chairman Underwood today, "as he introduced the bill, 'I can see no reason why this measure should be altered in the slightest. The democrats of the convention will also submit the same favorable report on this bill was submitted last season.' The bill introduced today differs principally from the bill which Taft vetoed in the duty on raw wool. The house originally stood for a duty of 20 per cent ad valorem. Later this was raised to 29 per cent to gain support of the senate progressive republicans.

Republican committee members will introduce a wool bill which complies with their interpretation of the tariff board report.

COAL STRIKE RIOTS

SANQHAR, England, March 21.—A force of 500 miners marching to the mines outside of this city to persuade non-union miners to quit, were ordered back by a force of 100 police today. A riot followed in which the police dispersed the crowd. Several miners were slightly injured.

SPRING IN BLIZZARD

CHICAGO, March 21.—Spring was ushered in today with only the promise of a temporary lull in the blizzard of mid-winter proportions that enveloped the middle west yesterday. Three inches of snow descended on this city, accompanied by a wind that reached a maximum velocity of 42 miles an hour.

SCHOOL QUARANTINED

RACINE, Wis., March 21.—The McMynn school, situated in the most exclusive residence district, was closed down today for a period of two weeks, in an effort by the board of health to prevent an epidemic of diphtheria, four families being quarantined in three days and the entire school exposed to contagion.

TAFT VOTE WILL BE ABOUT 2,500

FARGO, N. D., March 21.—With the returns from Tuesday's presidential primary election still far from incomplete, indications today are that Senator La Follette carried the state by about 12,000. The Taft vote, it is now believed will not exceed 2,500. The democratic vote, it is estimated, was a little over 5,000.

FOURTEEN MINERS ARE SAVED ALIVE

After All Hope Had Been Given Up, Rescuers Find Men Living in Burning Mine

REST ARE BELIEVED DEAD

Seventy-one Men Still Entombed in the Mine Are Believed to Have No Chance

M'CURTAIN, Okla., March 21.—Fourteen miners were rescued alive from the San Bois mine here this afternoon. Hopes have been raised that more men are alive and groping their way about in the interior of the mine. Rescuers were working frantically this afternoon, spurred to desperate efforts by the pitiful appeals of the relatives of men still missing that their loved ones be saved. Twenty-five men have now been taken from the burning mine alive. Seventy-one men are still in the mine.

Twenty Bodies Found

Twenty bodies had been brought from the mine early today. All were found huddled in heaps, the men evidently having crowded into the slightest crevices in the mine corridors in hopes of escaping the deadly gases and flames which swept through the working following the explosion. Several bodies were found near the main shaft of the mine, the men having fled before the flames and smoke to within striking distance of fresh air, only to fall suffocated. The clothing was burned from the bodies and all were charred beyond recognition.

The fire is still raging in the mine and work of searching for bodies still is dangerous. When the government mine rescue crew arrived late yesterday from McAlester, one of the big fans that was being worked full blast by the miners, was stopped in hopes of checking the flames but they appear to be spreading to practically every part of the mine. Many old miners here suggested that possibly the entombed men had retreated to the innermost recesses of the mine and might be found alive. The rescuers, however, do not believe this possible, and this morning a long line of rough wood coffins ordered last night from McAlester were piled up near the shaft.

Families Stricken

Ropes have been stretched about the shaft to prevent the grief stricken wives and children of the entombed men from hampering the work of rescue. All night long scores of women and children held their places about the shaft. About six o'clock, the local telephone company refused to accept incoming business as their lines were swamped with messages of death being sent out by the families of the men.

There were 116 men in the mine at the time of the explosion. When the first search party entered the shaft an hour later, eleven were found groping their way through the smoke, half dead. They were rushed to the surface and revived, but hope of saving any of the others has been abandoned.

INVALID DENIES GUILT

CHICAGO, March 21.—Raising herself half out of her invalid chair in which she had been wheeled into court, Mrs. Louise Vermilya, completely paralyzed in both legs, tottered between two bailiffs in Judge Sullivan's court today as she stood and pleaded not guilty to the murder of Robert M. Smith, whom she is charged with having poisoned by mixing arsenic with his food at her boarding house. Court then adjourned until late today, when preparations for selecting a jury were begun.

A New Old Household Soap

"Old Country" is not merely a new brand of household soap. It is a new soap. Yet it is so old that the oldest soap you ever used hitherto is a babe-in-arms compared to it.

The answer is that "Old Country" is new only to American housewives. It is the same identical soft green soap which has been a staple—like sugar and butter—in the old countries since 1753.

This soap has been tested and proved for a longer time than any soap you've ever been able to buy. It's been proved for over a century and a half by housewives who have an international reputation for clean homes.

Now Available for the First Time in America

All these years the formula of that wonderful soap has been kept secret in one Old Country family. Only by that formula can the ablest soap known be made out of nothing but pure vegetable oils saponified with the highest grade electrolytic potash. There's no packing house grease, no minerals, no "filler" of rosin in "Old Country"—no "filler" of anything. Nothing but straight pure soap.

It has been too expensive to import that soap for household use, and no amount of money could buy that formula. We had to bring over one of that family to be able to offer Genuine Old Country Green Soap to you. He is our Chief Chemist.

"The Wizard Soap of the World"

Think of a soap that is unequalled in every detail of household cleaning—which is the best for woollens because of scientific natural laws just as it is for the same reason best for scrubbing the kitchen floor! Think of a soap which beats any "special" compound for cleaning porcelain tubs and yet is unexcelled for the most delicate lace curtains! Think of the only soap which will clean linoleum without cracking it! Think of such strength with purity that makes it positively beneficial for the hands! That's "Old Country" and more!! Try it today.

The erection of a university at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars, which will include a home for aged and infirm members of the order, is contemplated.

2ND CHOICE BALLOT PUZZLE
MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—

That the second choice primary ballot provisions provided Wisconsin voters in the recently enacted "Mary Ann" law is too complicated and the average voter is inclined to either ignore that privilege or mutilate that part of the ballot in a puzzling manner, was indicated with Tuesday's primary elections here, the first real test of the "Mary Ann" law. Election clerks reported that hundreds of tally sheets were a hopeless muddle and it was indicated a score of contests of candidates for minor city offices would be challenged to a recount. Every possible mistake seemed to have been made with the second choice ballot, the election officials reported.

CRITICIZE JUDGE IN DIETZ CASE

Attorneys Declare Court Should Have Appointed Counsel to Defend Wisconsin Woodsman

MADISON, Wis., March 21.—The action of Circuit Judge Arthur H. Reid in failing to appoint counsel to defend John F. Dietz, the cameraman on Dam outlaws, serving a life sentence for the murder of a deputy sheriff, was criticized by attorneys Maurice McKenna, Fond du Lac and J. E. Malone, Beaver Dam, in the supreme court Saturday afternoon, where they argued for a new trial for Dietz. Even though the defendant did desire to conduct his own case, they said, it was the court's duty to assign a lawyer to his side if only to maintain the dignity and integrity of the court against possible charges that justice had miscarried. They cited the case of Czolgosz, the slayer of President McKinley, of Giteau and Wilkes Booth, all of whom, despite absolute proof of guilt, had the aid of counsel.

"Here were three able lawyers on one side of the Dietz case," said Attorney McKenna, "and on the other side a poor, untutored, German backwoodsman, who got as far along in the common school as long division, defending himself against them in a trial for his life's freedom. In some other states under like conditions he might have gone to the scaffold. The man who would submit to that sort of thing is not a rational man. He can't be sane. He must have a diseased mind."

"Yet not a word or syllable will be found in the record that is disrespectful to the court, lawyers or witnesses. We insist that this man has not had a fair trial, and we are here to ask that the judgment against him be reversed and that he be given a fair trial, with competent counsel to defend him."

Mr. Malone declared that attorneys for the state in the trial had prejudiced the jury by using such terms as "stronghold" and "port-holes."

District Attorney S. J. Williams of Hayward, V. W. James of Eau Claire and Deputy Attorney General Russell Jackson represented the state in the proceedings. Justice Marshall said the question before the court is whether Dietz committed prejudicial error without knowing it. He said the trial judge had a right to point out Dietz's prerogatives in the case. A decision is expected on April 3.

ROOSEVELT LEADERS DECLARE COLONEL WILL GET DAKOTA DELEGATES IN THE END

NEW YORK, March 21.—Declaring that the ten delegates elected in North Dakota Tuesday for Senator La Follette will all eventually be for Roosevelt, campaign leaders for the colonel today discussed the results of the first presidential primaries.

They declare that all of the delegates elected yesterday will be for Roosevelt at the convention in the end, because all have expressed a leaning toward the colonel for second choice.

"The Roosevelt leaders are wrong in claiming that the North Dakota delegates to the convention will go to Roosevelt at last. They must stick to La Follette all through the convention or violate the law. There is no second choice provision for the delegates in the North Dakota primary law. They are paid by the state and must stay with one candidate to the end."—Lieutenant Governor Thomas Morris.

The Roosevelt leaders consider that never before has an administration candidate received such a rebuke as was handed to President Taft yesterday in the North Dakota primaries. They say that they believe it forecasts the attitude which the majority of the other states, especially those which have a form of presidential primary, will take on the question of endorsing the Taft policies.

WILSON NAILS REPORT

GOVERNOR TAKES TWO STORIES TOLD AGAINST HIM AND BRANDS THEM AS FALSE

TRENTON, N. J., March 21.—Governor Woodrow Wilson has replied to two campaign stories which he says his enemies have been circulating. He sent a telegram today to Frank L. Mayes, editor of the Pensacola (Florida) Journal:

"Story is untrue. I did vote for Bryan and Kern in 1908."

He also replied to a letter from Mr. Pietrowski, a prominent Polish resident of Chicago, in which he explained that he had never intended to compare the normal immigrant from Europe with the Chinese laborer. In a passage quoted from his history the governor said he was referring to the practice of importing large numbers of unskilled laborers, under contract, for the purpose of displacing American labor.

"They were drawing," Wilson said, "in many cases upon a class of people who would not have come of their own motion and who were not truly representative of the countries from which they came."

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.

HOFWEBER TAKES A NEW LINE

The firm of Hofweber & Son have again shown their enterprising spirit by adding to their well-known line of Fords the famous "Abbott-Detroit" automobiles.

It was in one of these cars, the "Abbott Bulldog," that Dr. Chas. G. Percival passed through this city a year ago last fall on his famous trip from Detroit to beyond Skagway, Alaska, and back to New York, a total run of 42,000 miles. Dr. Percival is now making the same trip, hoping this time to reach Dawson City.

The first of these cars, a seven passenger touring car, will be on exhibition Sunday.

HOLD-UP MAN IS UNDER ARREST

BUTTE, Mont., March 21.—James M. Sullivan, wanted in connection with the murder of Watchman James Casey, Sunday morning, during a duel while patrons of a saloon were held up, surrendered to the Deer-lodge officers last night.

He admitted having been connected with the holdup, but declared that he did not fire the shot which killed Casey.

George Meade, Sullivan's alleged companion, in jail here, too, admits being in the holdup, but denies that he fired the fatal shot. Meade was wounded during the duel.

INTEREST NOW IN TRIAL OF ALLENS

Floyd and Victor Allen to Be Arraigned Tuesday; Others Are Scattered; May Escape

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 21.—Convinced from the stories told by detectives who daily straggle back from the mountains after fruitless search for the Allen gang, that capture of the outlaws will be a matter of at least weeks, interest here today centered on the approaching trial of the four prisoners now held at Roanoke.

All plans are being made for arraignment of Floyd Allen and his son, Victor here Tuesday. Every effort will be made to fight any plea for a change of venue. Only two of the indictments returned last week by a special jury were made public. They name Floyd and Victor Allen. At least half of a dozen more members of the Allen gang were named in secret indictments. Prosecuting officials here plan to ask Gov. Mann for a strong detachment of militia to guard Hillsville during the trial of the Allens provided the pleas for a change of venue are denied.

Towns people here believe the Allen gang would not hesitate to rescue their kin.

Reports here say that desultory firing has been heard in three or four sections of the mountains, and the belief is that members of the gang, now known to be scattered, are taking an occasional "pot shot" at their pursuers. Another day of drizzling rain clouded the air in the mountains and made deeper the mud which has hampered pursuit for an entire week.

Repels Attack of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." MANY BOWLERS IN TOURNAMENT

Thirty-six Teams to Go After Record; Colts and South Siders to Play

Thirty-six teams are now entered in the two-man team tournament now being held at the Combination bowling alleys and great interest is being displayed in this event.

Many teams are in the race to break the record of 1111 which is being held by Mekvold and Thoreson. The four highest scores in the two-man team tournament are as follows: Mekvold and Thoreson, 1111; Poehling and Zoeller, 1109; Mekvold and Voves, 1103; Wittenberg and Yehle, 1087. Mekvold has the record for a single man for three games with a score of 601.

An interesting game is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, when Yehle's Colts and a picked team from the south side will meet in a series of games for total pins. As both teams are composed of expert bowlers and both have excellent records one of the best games of the season is expected.

In one of the best played series of the season, the Painters, champions of the Commercial Bowling league, defeated the Nelson Clothing company team in two out of three games at the Combination bowling alleys last evening.

After the Painters had won the first two games, the Nelsons came back strong in the third and at the close of the tenth frame the score was a tie. As a result of the tie an extra frame was necessary to decide the game and in the eleventh frame Gilbert and Rittner rolled a split, thus winning the match for the Nelson Clothing company team. The latter finally won out by eight pins, the final score being 953 to 945. The first game, which was also a close one, was won by the champions by 15 pins, the final score being 672 to 657, and they also won the second match, 863 to 788.

Gilbert of the Nelson Clothing company team had high score for a single game with a mark of 219, which he made in the third match. Verket and Mekvold of the Painters were tied for second place with a score of 204. Score:

Verket	193	190	204
Paulson	161	158	196
Mekvold	164	194	204
Sub.	143	143	174
Voves	149	178	167

Totals	672	863	945
Nelson Clothing Company	151	144	219
Gilbert	142	182	174

WANT TAFT TO HURL HIS THUNDER

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The battle of personalities between President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt is now on with a vengeance and today the president's advisers urged him to make immediate and scathing reply to the Roosevelt speech of last night. The president hesitated to enter the field of bitter personal counter-charges opened by Roosevelt in his declaration that the policy Taft upholds is that which "every beneficiary of crooked privilege loudly applauds," but his political advisers were strong in their demand that the president begin "talking out loud."

Taft's reply to the declaration that he "disturbs the people," was recently prepared and his political managers were insistent today that something of the sort, attacking Roosevelt be put forth at once.

Old Country
GREEN SOAP

TO BOOST FOR BETTER HORSES

The Wisconsin Livestock
Breeder's Association
Will Run Special
Through County

There were on June 30, 1911, according to a report issued by the Wisconsin department of horse breeding, 8 scrub, 10 grade and 17 pure bred stallions owned in La Crosse county. The proportion of registered and grade or "mongrel" sire stock is equal. The farmers of Grant county, on the other hand own 18 "scrubs," 48 grade and 101 pure bred stallions, this district rapidly developing into one of the leading horse breeding districts of the state. In this connection our readers will be interested in knowing that the subject of horse breeding will receive special attention upon the program of the meetings held in connection with the special livestock train which is to visit our county during the last week in March. It is anticipated that Dr. A. S. Alexander, who has charge of the registration of stallions in Wisconsin will be one of the speakers, being assisted by such practical horsemen as L. P. Martiny, president of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeder's association and David Imrie of St. Croix county.

Horses Increase

In the past, improvement in the breeding of horses has not been as marked nor as rapid in this state as it possibly should have been. Yet during the last ten years Wisconsin has made much progress in horse breeding. For example in 1900, according to government reports, the valuation of cattle in Wisconsin was greater than that of horses, but in 1910 this situation was reversed. The valuation of horses in the last ten years increased 100 per cent while the valuation of cattle increased but 43 per cent. Further evidence of improvement has been given during the last five or six years when the proportion of grade or "mongrel" stallions in service in the state has been reduced from 65 to 48 per cent. This is a very encouraging record and will very likely be quite surpassed in the future, for the profits to be realized from better horse breeding are becoming more and more apparent.

There is no reason why we cannot have community breeding of horses as well as of cattle. If one community would stick to one breed alone it would soon become famous as a horse center. In 1910 a small Holstein county in Wisconsin sold $200,000 worth of livestock. This was brought about through co-operation and organization. Five counties in this state have already organized horse breeders' clubs for mutual assistance and co-operation. When such communities become better organized and developed it will not be necessary to go to Europe in order to purchase good horses. The million dollars which have gone there in the last ten years will then go into the pockets of American farmers.

For the purpose of stimulating greater interests in livestock farming the Wisconsin Livestock Breeder's association will operate the "special" starting at Dodgeville in Iowa county and traversing Grant, Iowa, Dane, Sauk, Columbia, Juneau, Monroe, La Crosse, Trempealeau, Rock, Walworth, Waukesha, Fond du Lac and Dodge counties. Representative specimens of the Clydesdale and Percheron breed will be carried in the livestock car for the purpose of exhibiting desirable draft types.

SUFFRAGISTS AWAIT LAW INSTRUCTIONS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—That the suffragettes of Wisconsin have not intentionally violated the corrupt practices act is the statement of Crystal Eastman Benedict, campaign manager of the Political Equality league. It seems the suffragette leaders have been working in ignorance of the law's existence and contributions have been received from without as well as in the state, no statement of which has been filed.

Mrs. Benedict, in speaking of the matter, said: "Speaking for the Political Equality league, I wish to say it was not until a short time ago that our attention was called to this law, and that we wrote immediately to the attorney general to inquire whether our activities came under the provisions of this law."

"We asked for explicit instruction, but have not yet received an answer from the attorney general. We stand ready to comply with his instructions as soon as they are received."

Tightens Her Skin— Loses Her Wrinkles

(From Social Mirror)

"I want to tell you how easily I got rid of my wrinkles," writes Luella Marsh. "While in London a friend, much envious because of her youthful looks, gave me a formula for a home-made preparation which has the effect of instantly tightening the skin, thus smoothing out wrinkles and furrows."

"The principal ingredient is powdered salsolite, which can be had at drug stores here. An ounce of salsolite is dissolved in a half pint witch hazel. After bathing my face in this but once the transformation was so marvelous I looked years younger. Even the deep crow's feet were affected, and the annoying creases about my neck. It seems difficult to believe anything could produce such results. Several to whom I recommended the recipe have been similarly helped, one an elderly lady whose cheeks had become quite baggy."

DR. WALKER REFUSES TO WEAR NIGHTIE

NEW YORK, March 21.—Hospital rules clashed with Dr. Mary E. Walker's indomitable will. Then Dr. Walker, whose life was despaired of two days ago, got up, donned her frock coat and trousers, and left the Presbyterian hospital in a taxicab.

Dr. Walker is wearing pajamas again. The hospital authorities insisted she wear a woman's lacy nightdress. Too weak at first to resist, she suffered for forty-eight hours the ignominy of being clothed in the first feminine garments she has worn in more than half a century.

Although a prominent physician offered his services without fee, Dr. Walker took full charge of her own case. She called for raw oysters and ice cream, sneered at the mention of medicine and became highly indignant when asked how she felt.

FISH LAWS CAUSE FIGHT IN WINONA

WINONA, Minn., March 21.—Sealing Brothers of this city, for alleged violation of fish laws at Fairmont, have come to Winona and engaged counsel to fight the case. They maintain they were within the law in what they did, as they worked under a license from the state game and fish commission. The shad which they were charged by Deputy Game Warden Ward with having seized were dead and were thrown back, it is said, but Deputy Ward prevented the drawing of the net. The Seelings contend some of their nets and other property were destroyed by farmers near Fairmont. They are considering instituting action for recovery of damages.

Mrs. Moyle recently had instituted suit for divorce. Her body was found in the morning in a bedroom by Peter Peterson, with whom she had attended a dance the night of her death. She had been married about a year.

Mr. Hutchcroft's studies show further that tuberculosis causes an annual loss to the state as follows: Total deaths, 4,800; single males and females, 2,320; married males and females, 2,124; widowed, 350; homes deprived of father or mother, homes with no parents, children or orphans; orphans estimated at 1,400; total cost for 4,880 deaths during 1909 and 1910, $11,590,000; loss in wages for 12,000 cases, during same period, $6,960,000; total cost of tuberculosis during two years, $18,550,000.

Mr. Hutchcroft is statistician of the state bureau of vital statistics.

The denunciation followed objection raised by counsel for the defense to the introduction of letters that passed between Adolph Segal, the Philadelphia promoter and his agent, Gustav E. Kiseel, through whom Segal borrowed $1,250,000 and in doing so, gave the trust control of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company. These letters told of the negotiations in connection with loan.

Judge Hand temporarily refused to admit the letters as evidence until a foundation to prove the government's allegations had been laid.

To do this Wise called Charles R. Heike, former employee of the trust who was convicted of defrauding the government.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur
Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which sage and sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggists, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

PLAGUE COSTS BIG SUM

TOTAL COST TO STATE OF TUBERCULOSIS IS ESTIMATED TO BE $18,550,000 IN TWO YEARS

MADISON, Wis., March 21.—According to computations made by L. W. Hutchcroft, secretary of the Madison Anti-Tuberculosis society, in an address before the Dane County Medical society, deaths from tuberculosis in Dane county numbered 79 in 1908; 80 in 1909; 90 in 1910, and 91 in 1911. Upon the basis of 90 deaths per year, the loss in wages for each death is estimated at $21,000, cost for nurses, etc., at $405, and value of life by the American table at $1,700, a total loss of $2,375. The total loss is calculated to be $344,250 based upon 90 deaths and losses for 450 cases.

Investigations at Milwaukee showed that, in a canvass of 786 cases, 50 per cent of the families had an income of less than $15 per week and a membership of 5.3 persons.

Mr. Hutchcroft's studies show further that tuberculosis causes an annual loss to the state as follows: Total deaths, 4,800; single males and females, 2,320; married males and females, 2,124; widowed, 350; homes deprived of father or mother, homes with no parents, children or orphans; orphans estimated at 1,400; total cost for 4,880 deaths during 1909 and 1910, $11,590,000; loss in wages for 12,000 cases, during same period, $6,960,000; total cost of tuberculosis during two years, $18,550,000.

PENSION FOR MOTHERS

MOTHERS' CONGRESS SPEAKER BELIEVE ORPHAN ASYLUM MONEY CAN BE BETTER SPENT

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 21.—The pensioning of widowed and deserted mothers instead of causing their children to be placed in some charitable institution was advocated in the report of Mary S. Garrett, chairman of the department of legislation of the National Mothers' congress here today.

In supporting the bill which has now passed the United States senate for the establishment of a federal children's bureau, Miss Garrett said: "It is estimated that there are 90,000 children in institutions in the United States; that the cost of supporting them is between fifteen and twenty million dollars a year."

"It is a pertinent question as to whether it would not be better to use the millions to pension worthy widowed or deserted mothers, who are capable of taking care of their children themselves, and thus conserve the home, rather than break up all these homes."

Miss Garrett recommended that the Mothers' Congress work for laws needed for the welfare of children in all states, saying that every state should have a juvenile court and probation system. Laws regulating child labor, providing for medical inspection of factories and schools, and further legislation providing educational opportunities was declared necessary.

HE HAS MANY COURTS

JUDGE SANBORN AT MADISON IS AT PRESENT FORCED TO SIT IN THREE EXTRA COURTS

MADISON, Wis., March 21.—Federal Judge A. L. Sanborn of this city, representing the western district of Wisconsin, is laboring under a heavy strain just now by or three other courts besides his own. Federal courts in this part of the country are badly handicapped this winter by vacancies on the bench. Judge Sanborn has been compelled to preside in the eastern district court at Milwaukee, to which Ferdinand A. Geiger has recently been appointed. The senate is yet to act on the confirmation. The resignation of Judge Grosscup at Chicago has added to Judge Sanborn's burdens, and he makes weekly trips to Chicago. Judge Kohlsaat, also of the Chicago federal bench, is ill and it is said may decide to leave the bench. Judge George H. Carpenter has a long job in trying the beef trust case. The great bulk of the federal court business in this section therefore is now being done by Judge Sanborn and Judge K. M. Landis.

SPOTLIGHTS

A Lyman H. Howe photographer, known as "the fearless knight of the camera," with three Alpine guides, recently took a perpendicular ride in a car of the cog wheel railway of Montreux, during the trip the camera man photographed scenes of inspiring grandeur and variety. Then the party went into a car of the Westernhorn Suspension railway, and the camera man continued his work to snow-capped peaks at the La Crosse theater March 23 and 24, with two matinees and two nights, how it feels to be swung from one Alpine peak to another over untrodden abysses. When they had reached the limit of their progress by mechanical means, the photographer saw still greater peaks towering above them, that had never been conquered by man. The lure of the heights had seized him. He realized that scenes of wondrous beauty were in store for him on those dizzy heights and his professional enthusiasm made him forgetful of the dangers of a climb which had taken such a heavy toll of human life. His guides were equally enthusiastic in their own professional way, but at the same time they were more experienced. They had witnessed so many tragic deaths that discretion had somewhat cooled their valor. They tried to convince Mr. Howe's photographer that to proceed higher would be practical suicide, but after much persuasion the camera man succeeded in making them forgetful of their discretion and the four men proceeded on a climb between life and death. Success at last rewarded their efforts and skill and the photographer's camera recorded scenes more exquisite than could be imagined. They embrace every variety of Alpine scenery. Masses of floating clouds far below and gorgeous sunset and moonrise scenes over the glistening peaks enhance the beauty of the scenes.

EGGS CAUSE ARREST

FUGITIVE IS CAUGHT THROUGH PAUL'S FONDNESS FOR FRIED EGGS; IS NOTED JEW-EL THIEF

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 21. — A pal's fondness for fried eggs resulted in Daniel Callahan falling into the clutches of the government postal inspectors here after he had safely eluded detectives all over the world for over a year. Callahan is held here today, with a man giving the name of Charles F. Miller, following their arrest in a restaurant by Postal Inspector Bunsen. Callahan is suspected of having been implicated in jewel robberies aggregating $120,000.

The two men were in a restaurant when arrested, and Callahan turned to Miller and exclaimed: "Damn you and your fried eggs!" Callahan is wanted here for robbing the postoffice at Bremen and probably will be tried first on that charge. When arrested, Inspector Bunsen and the police say he tried to bribe them into releasing him. Callahan had not planned to stop in St. Louis, but said Miller was hungry for a meal of fried eggs.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The mysterious robbery of Mrs. Maudie Drummond, who was the widow of Marshall Field, Jr., of Chicago, when she married the wealthy young Englishman, was one of the most mysterious the American police ever had to solve.

The jewels were taken from the drawer of a table in her dressing room in her suite on the Hamburg-American liner Amerika, while that steamer was off the Ambrose channel light on the night of February 27, 1911. The jewels included black, white and pink pearls, some of them being stones noted for years as being the most perfectly matched in existence. Mrs. Drummond had them insured in Lloyds for more than $100,000 and collected the insurance.

It was believed at the time that the jewels were stolen by a gang of international thieves.

HOLD CONVENTION AT HIGH SCHOOL

Presidential Candidates Nominated by Three Parties; La Follette Is Cheered

HOLD ELECTIONS TOMORROW

Roosevelt, Taft, La Follette, Clark, Wilson, Harmon and Debs Are Candidates

The republican, democratic and socialist national conventions for the nomination of presidential candidates was held at the high school this morning. The meeting, which consisted of an assembly of the entire student body, was the most successful of its kind in the history of the institution. Different members of the civic classes presented the different presidential candidates and they did great credit to themselves and to their candidates.

A vote will be taken today and tomorrow and will be a combination of casting votes in the national convention and the election of the president. Each student will vote on a candidate for nominee on each ticket and at the same time will vote for the man he desires to have elected to the presidency of the United States. In this way a fair idea will be gained as to just how the city of La Crosse stands in regard to the presidential situation.

The meeting was first given over to the republicans and the different candidates were nominated. Ralph Scott nominated Colonel Roosevelt in glowing terms. He told of Roosevelt's past record, how he championed civil service in New York state; the excellent work he did as assistant secretary of war. He also appealed to the women by saying that the colonel was an enthusiast of woman suffrage.

Strum Names Taft Arthur Strum placed Wm. H. Taft before the convention as a presidential nominee, urging his election because he was broad minded and just in his appointments; because he favored the conservation of natural resources and on account of his intentions in regard to reciprocity. He also spoke against Roosevelt, saying that he was inconsistent.

Robert M. La Follette was presented as a nominee by Leland Mahoney amid an enthusiastic and long demonstration. He compared Roosevelt and La Follette and showed that La Follette was the greater. He told how "Wisconsin Bob" had made Wisconsin the most progressive and most looked up to state in the union. He spoke in glowing terms of La Follette's record in the senate and of his fight on the trusts.

La Follette, Cheered This speech was received with more enthusiasm than the others and speaks favorably for La Follette in the election.

Withrow for Debs The speakers for the republicans having presented their candidates gave way to Gardner Withrow, who presented Eugene V. Debs as the only logical candidate the socialists have to present. His speech was a characteristic socialistic one and with the record presented of Debs ought to poll a good vote for him.

Clark Eulogized Guy Jolivette in a fiery and well delivered eulogy presented Champ Clark, speaker of the house, as the one man the democrats have to place the presidential honors on. He tore the republican platforms to pieces saying that they were not consistent with each other in regard to tariff laws. He gave Clark's record in congress, showing how he carried measures over the president which benefited the people.

In the best delivered and typical convention style of speech, Earle Spellum placed Judson Harmon of Ohio before the convention. He held his audience from start to finish. He told of Harmon's honesty in political dealings and how he favored the working people. The speech was flowery and fiery, making a great hit with the students.

Mr. Carter acted as chairman of the convention and instructed the students how to vote. The voting booth is the office which will be conducted like a regular booth, both boys and girls voting. The vote will be counted on Saturday.

WANTS U. S. TO CROSS BORDER

Viljoen, Maderist, Says It Would Be Better Than to Have Orozco Conquer

EL PASO, Texas, March 21.—Declaring that intervention by the United States would be far better than that General Pascual Orozco, recently an ore wagon driver, should prevail in the revolution, he has started in Mexico against the administration of Francisco Madero, Jr., General Benjamin Viljoen, a hero of the Boer war and a fighter in Mexico under the banner of Madero, gave today to the United Press his view of the situation in the revolt-ridden republic.

(By Gen. Benjamin Viljoen.) It is not to be denied that the situation in Mexico today is very grave. Pascual Orozco is heading toward Mexico City. He has progressed along the Mexican railway a distance of some 100 miles, taking each town as he reaches here. Where he will be stopped is a question. Madero has no more soldiers than Diaz had—some 14,000. How many of these are loyal is a question.

If Madero has enough loyal men to stop Orozco's advance all will be well. If he has not, then American intervention will be better than what would follow. Orozco was an ore wagon driver at the beginning of the Madero administration. He read about Madero's attempt to remove Diaz and he was brave enough to start a revolution of his own in his neighborhood even before Madero's fight was begun. To Orozco belongs the distinction of having struck the first blow, by force of arms, of the Madero revolution.

If the Americans intervene they will not have an easy conquest. It will cost many lives and take many, many months of fighting for them to pacify the country. The factional strife, I believe, would cease in Mexico and all sides will join to face the invaders.

Many people in Mexico feel that should the United States once gain a foothold in that republic, it would not mean an intervention to stop bloodshed among Mexicans, but it would be a conquest of territory, which the U. S. would be unwilling to surrender.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY TO ADDRESS MEETINGS SATURDAY IN MILWAUKEE; AND FOND DU LAC

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey will speak Saturday evening at the Pabst Theater here. He will arrive in the evening after speaking in the afternoon at Fond du Lac. J. L. O'Connor, president of the Milwaukee branch of the Wilson league will preside at the meeting.

Plans are being formed by Wilson leaders at the headquarters in the Plankinton hotel for a speaking tour of the state in the interests of Governor Wilson. P. H. Martin of Green Bay has been booked to speak at two of these meetings. W. F. Wolfe of La Crosse is in Milwaukee conferring with the Wilson leaders from other parts of the state.

CANDIDATE IS CHOSEN

INDIANA CONVENTION PICKS MAN FOR GOVERNOR, AND ENDORSES MARSHALL FOR PRESIDENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 21.—Samuel L. Ralston of Lebanon, this afternoon, was nominated for governor by acclamation by the democratic state convention here.

The platform adopted endorsed the child labor law, the uniform accounting act, the employers' liability law and city and township liquor option law and the administration of Governor Marshall. He was held to be the logical candidate for the democratic presidential nomination.

Advocacy of tariff reform, strict law enforcement and governmental economy characterized the speech of Governor Marshall in opening the convention. The statements of the Hoosier executive on national problems were generally accepted as his declaration of principles in his campaign for the presidential democratic campaign as temporary chairman of the convention.

GIN FOR THE KIDNEYS

Gin is one of the oldest known remedies for kidney and bladder troubles, especially when used in the following formula: "Six ounces good pure gin; half ounce fluid extra Buchu; half ounce Murax compound." Any druggist can supply or mix these ingredients. Shake well each time and take in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after meals and at bed time.

This is the most effective remedy known for the quick relief of kidney and bladder disorders. Such symptoms as backache, frequent or highly colored urine, rheumatic pains in the groin ought to have prompt attention to prevent Bright's disease or diabetes.

AGED MAN KILLS SELF BY HANGING

Brooding Over Death of Wife Thought to Have Caused Suicide of Frank Weigel

Brooding over the death of his wife is believed to have been the cause of the suicide of Frank Weigel, aged 64, at his home, 1091 Johnson street late yesterday afternoon. Weigel has been in poor health since the death of his wife six months ago and seemed to be brooding over troubles.

He was found hanging in the woodshed in the rear of his home by his two daughters, Eleanore and Florence, aged 14 and 12, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The girls cut the rope which held him suspended in the air and carried his body into the house. Assistance was summoned later and Dr. Bechman, upon his arrival, pronounced him dead.

Mr. Weigel has been a resident of this city for many years during which time he has been employed as a shoemaker. He is survived by five sons and five daughters. The complete funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Coroner L. Kleeber, following an examination, declared death was due to suicide.

BRITAIN FEARS MANN

NOTED SOCIALIST LABOR LEADER TO BE RAILROADED; ENGLAND FEARS RESULTS OF HIS AGITATION

SANFORD, Eng., March 21.—Because he urged the soldiers to refuse to shoot their "fathers and brothers," if called out for strike duty, Tom Mann, the most noted of all of the British socialist labor leaders, was remanded to jail without bail here today. The charge, brought by attorneys representing the war office, alleged that he had incited the soldiers to mutiny. After the crown's complaint was read, the court adjourned the hearing for a week. When Mann's attorneys asked permission to furnish bail, they were informed that the offense was not bailable at present.

The government wants to keep Mann behind the bars, as his vitriolic utterances are greatly feared with the temper of the working people already strained close to the breaking point. Mann has recently been advocating a universal strike on May 1 for the eight hour work day.

The government also believes that Mann is behind the agitation among the railway employees, who are now very restless and it was generally believed today every effort will be made to secure his conviction on the present charge to keep him off the platform for some months to come.

NEW METHOD OF EMBEZZLING USED

RACINE, Wis., March 21.—Percival C. Peterson, head of the Shoop Medicine company, was brought here today from Chicago on the charge of embezzling $3,885.88. His peculations covered a period of between three and four years and the exposure came during his absence of three days. Peterson's method, the police say, is a new one. His system was to get checks from the cashier of the company on the plea that he wanted to send them back to the senders because they did not cover the amount of the claim. He would then forge the company's regular endorsement and cash the checks. Peterson admits his guilt and says he did not think the shortage was so much and cannot account for what he did with the money, outside of what he invested in getting ready to be married last August.

STANDARD OIL DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, March 21.—The Standard Oil company of Indiana today declared a stock dividend for the benefit of its stockholders of $29,000,000. The capital stock of the corporation was increased from $1,000,000 to $30,000,000 to be distributed to the stockholders of record on April 1 pro rata, according to their holdings. This action had been anticipated the stock of the company, which on January 1, sold at $2.50, being quoted today at $6.00 a share.

HAT TOO OLD FOR WITNESS STAND

Co-ed Suing Dean of Chicago University for Slander Refuses to Show Ancient Chapeau

CHICAGO, March 21.—An effort was made today to exhibit as evidence before the jury, the $250 picture hat about which revolves the story of the university melodrama that resulted in the dismissal of Debra Mercy, trim and vivacious little co-ed, Chicago university, from that institution and her $100,000 damage suit against Dean Marion Talbot of the women's department, for slander and persecution.

When the grim note summoning Miss Mercy to the dean's office for an interview and the subsequent one, informing her that she had been dropped from the rolls, were placed before the jury attorneys suggested that the hat might be shown as evidence of the propriety of dress among co-eds.

Miss Mercy, who was on the witness stand, objected strenuously, declaring that the hat "was years old, moth eaten and fallen into decay." She declared that its most beautiful feathers had been "snipped" off, and that the chapeau was but a dismal wreck of the once stunning bit of headgear.

During her examination today the young woman stared imperturbably at the "defense group" of deans, professors and instructors surrounding Dean Talbot in the court room and declared that she "believed her taste in matters of dress were too much for Dean Talbot and Mrs. F. Von Massau Jahn," a sister of Dean Talbot's, with whom she boarded.

Miss Mercy declared that when she found her hat pruned of its finest feathers during her absence, she asked Mrs. Jahn for an explanation. Mrs. Jahn, she testified, at once charged her with ruining the hat herself so she might collect the burglary insurance of $200 on it. The unpleasant discussion that followed, Miss Mercy said, resulted in her being called before Dean Talbot and examined as to the sources of her funds. She said that Dean Talbot declared she had falsified in every particular when she told her story. A visit to the dean with her brother Henry and her fiancé, Warren Reynolds, a wealthy real estate man, followed, but reinstatement was refused and Dean Talbot, she declared, said that she believed the witness had been receiving money from certain admirers.

"After that," Miss Mercy continued, "I decided to bring the suit for damages."

Cross examined of the young woman was then begun.

The court room was crowded.

ICE ENDANGERS BOAT

CONESTOGA, A FREIGHTER, IS CAUGHT IN ICE PACK OFF MILWAUKEE; CREW IS IMPERILED

MILWAUKEE, March 21.—A big lake steamer believed to be the Conestoga, is stranded and in a dangerous position a mile off Dunes bay in Lake Michigan, near this city. The life saving crew is enroute to the scene. The officials of the Crosby line of lake packets at noon confirmed the report that the stranded vessel was the Conestoga of that company's fleet, bound from Grand Haven, Mich., to Milwaukee. They were informed by wireless that the vessel was caught in an ice floe one mile off Dunes bay and was resting on the bottom.

A brisk off-shore wind makes the vessel's situation dangerous.

BRIBERY CASE RUSHED

NEW MEXICO ASSEMBLY DETERMINED TO ARRIVE AT DECISION SPEEDILY; NO SENATOR CHOSEN

SANTA FE, N. M., March 21.—Counsel for Representatives Trujillo, Montoya, Cordova and Lucero, accused of accepting bribes for their votes for United States senator, will file their replies to the charges in the house this afternoon. Meanwhile all four defendants have been arraigned in the district court on the same charges, have waived preliminary hearing and are at liberty on $2,000 bail each. Despite the fact that the defendants have not filed their answers, the lower house is determined to push the cases to a speedy issue. The second joint ballot for United States senator will be taken at noon but there is little likelihood of an election until some decision has been reached in the bribery cases.

T. R. ASSAILS TAFT IN A HOT SPEECH

Roosevelt Makes Fiery Attack on President in Key-note Speech of His Campaign

NEW YORK, March 21.—Charging flatly that President Taft and his supporters "distrust popular government, accept it with reluctance and hedge it around with every species of restriction and check and balance so as to make the power of the people as limited and ineffective as possible," Theodore Roosevelt, addressing a meeting in Carnegie hall here last night, sounded the keynote of his campaign for nomination to the presidency, holding the issue that now confronts the republican party is, are the American people fit to govern themselves.

"I believe they are," said the colonel. "My opponents do not. They pay lip loyalty to this doctrine but show their real beliefs by the way in which they champion every device to make the nominal rule of the people a sham."

Colonel Roosevelt renewed his adherence to the principles and policies laid down in his Columbus speech, including direct primaries, the initiative and referendum and the recall, both of public officers and of the decisions of courts.

This last he discussed at length, taking as his text the speech of President Taft in Chicago, in which the chief executive flayed the colonel's proposal as "utterly without merit."

At the Outlook office today he took up the lines of his various speeches. He will stand on his Columbus speech, but will reiterate that he is proposing nothing with reference to the United States supreme court or the federal government; that his plan of judicial recall is merely to give the people of a state the right to review a decision of the courts on a constitutional question.

Roosevelt temporarily completed his itinerary, arranging to leave here Tuesday at 5:04 p. m. for Chicago. From Chicago he will take a special car in which he will go to Kansas City. From there he will travel to St. Paul and Minneapolis. On the return eastward he probably will speak in Detroit and is planning other Michigan stops. He consulted with Senator Dixon today relative to the Michigan plans. It is expected that he will make numerous rear platform speeches.

Roosevelt announced this afternoon that he had accepted the invitation of the Million Population Club of St. Louis to attend a luncheon arranged by them for noon on March 28. He will go to St. Louis from Chicago, where he speaks on March 27. Roosevelt will speak next Saturday night in Portland, Maine. It was stated today he will leave here Saturday morning for Maine, speaking at Portland and come back immediately after the meeting.

SUFFRAGE HEADS TRIED

MRS. PANKHURST AND OTHERS TRIED FOR CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY; DAMAGING LETTERS READ

LONDON, March 21.—The hearing of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, Mrs. M. Tuke and Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, the latter two editors of Votes for Women, on a charge of criminal conspiracy to damage property was resumed in Bow Street police court today. The attorneys for the government continued their presentation of the evidence secured in the raid on the suffrage offices, including editorials and letters penned by the prisoners, and copies of letters sent to their lieutenants in the provinces. These letters were considered the most dangerous for the defense because they plainly stated that a demonstration was planned which would make the "ministry stop and think," and which would be certain to compel the premier to accede to the demands of the women.

Chicago Grain Letter CHICAGO, March 21.—The wheat market opened with a strong swell, on cable reports of higher prices in Liverpool resulting from small shipments from South American ports.

The advance did not last, however, when reports from northwestern markets told of heavier receipts of grain at milling points. After a dip below yesterday's levels, the market strengthened somewhat.

With a forecast for fair and warmer weather there was little demand for corn today while holders were offering their commitments. Prices sagged heavily.

The oats market started higher but weakened early in the trading in sympathy with other grains.

Provisions opened high and strong as a result of the big advance in the price of hogs. This market also dropped back to yesterday's levels when the grains began to recede.

PREXIES OPPOSED TO SUMMER BASEBALL

CHICAGO, March 21.—What effect the meeting of the presidents of the big eight conference held here yesterday will have on the summer baseball squabble in the conference, was being discussed here today. The "prexies" went on record as in favor of two faculty representatives from each college and also the upholding of the standard of "amateur athletics" on college teams. Their action was taken to mean that they oppose the idea of allowing collegians to earn tuition by playing "summer baseball." Interest now centers on the question whether the conference influenced by the presidents' action will turn down the Illinois summer baseball proposition and precipitate a crisis.

KELLY PROVES EASY FOR ED M'GOORTY

KENOSHA, Wis., March 21.—Eddie McGoorty today is touted as a sure champion, following his easy defeat of Hugo Kelly, in their ten round bout here last night. McGoorty was on top of his opponent from the tap of the gong and floored him from the count in the first round. Straight jabs to the face mixed with a bombardment of the body won for the Oshkosh boy. Kelly's cleverness showed in the sixth round, but only for a momentary advantage. During the last three rounds McGoorty tried ineffectually for a knockout. In the tenth Kelly was hanging on and tired out. Only about 2,000 fans witnessed the mill.

SOX BEAT WACO

CLAIMS SPILL WAS ACCIDENT

Miller's Manager Declares He Threw Little from the Stage Accidentally; Want Return Match

In a letter to The Tribune today, A. M. Wood, manager of Walter Miller, champion middleweight wrestler of St. Paul, explains that when Miller rushed Jack Little from the stage in their recent match here that it was accidental and that his man is desirous of proving this to local people in their bout which will be held here March 29.

"Miller didn't rush Little from the stage intentionally," said Wood, "and the unfortunate occurrence was merely an accident. The St. Paul champion wants to prove this fact to La Crosse people and he will beat Jack Little in a fair and square manner on March 29. However, if Little succeeds in beating Miller, will have no excuses to offer but we will shake hands with him and admit that he is the better man."

Both Little and Miller appear to be in the best of condition for the important match which will be held here, and the bout is certain to prove a good one. As evidenced by his letter, Miller is determined to win from the Milwaukee man but Little is just as determined to be the victor. Miller has been showing up well in the many matches he has been in recently.

PITCHING PHENOM FOUND

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 21.—"If he does not break his pitching arm Buck O'Brien will be worth twice as much as Pittsburgh paid for Marty O'Toole," is the way President McAleer and Manager Stahl expressed themselves today. O'Brien looks to be another Mathewson to every Red Sox player.

MONTGOMERY BEATS CUBS.

STEWART LICKS CARL MORRIS

NEW YORK, March 21.—If Carl Morris takes the advice that those who saw him meet Jim Stewart last night are handing out today, he will soon be back at Supula, Okla., with his hand on the locomotive throttle. The Oklahoma white hope failed to show any of his boasted improvement. He was awkward and slow and many times Stewart forced him to clinch to avoid wicked left jabs. Sporting editors who have been loud in their praise of Morris admit today that Stewart got the decision easily.

FAVORS WAGE BILL

BOSTON, March 21.—The joint committee of the Massachusetts legislature voted to report favorably the bill calling for a minimum wage for women and children employed in all factories of industries in the state. The same committee voted to report favorably a bill preventing street railways from working motormen and conductors more than nine hours a day.

TAFT AND T. R. TO WAR

ON BOARD PRESIDENT TAFT'S TRAIN EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON, via Trenton, N. LOVERS OF MUSIC BRAVE THE STORM

Normal School Auditorium Filled in Spite of the Snow; Stabat Mater Pleases

CHORUS WORK IS PRAISED

Pianist, Soloists and Miss Oltman Co-operate to General Success of Concert

(By Isidor Tippmann)

The question whether La Crosse has a strong colony of music lovers has often been discussed but last night great proof was offered for the affirmative. The Normal school chorus presented Rossini's Stabat Mater at the school auditorium before an audience which filled nearly every seat in the large hall. A genuine blizzard which was to come off in North Dakota about two months ago had been miscarried, and was at the height of its glory just about the time when people had to start for the concert. But they came, heard and were pleased.

The soloists in Rossini's Stabat Mater were Miss Clara Williams, soprano, Mr. Owen T. Morris, tenor, Mrs. Annis Gray, contralto, and Mr. Alexius Baas, basso. These vocal artists were brought here for this concert and their work was for the most part very satisfactory. They are all singers of talent and good schooling but their voices did not always produce an agreeable result in the ensemble numbers.

Miss Harriet B. Oltman directed the chorus numbers most creditably. There was firmness in her beat and Miss Oltman got some very admirable work from her singers.

Painstaking Training

The chorus sang with surprising freshness and good tone volume. The young singers were quite sure of their tasks and showed much painstaking training.

A program of four vocal solo numbers and the "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass by the Normal school chorus preceded the Stabat Mater. The audience seemed to be rather indiscriminate in its applause of the vocal numbers, which differed quite widely in musical value and merit. The Mozart composition showed the chorus at its best, and particularly praiseworthy in this number was the musical piano playing of Miss Marion Southworth. The young lady has a lovely musical tone at times quite brilliant without being noisy and charged with that indescribable something which results when fingers and mind co-operate. The concert gave much pleasure to the listeners as was shown by the enthusiastic applause after nearly every number.

Closes Musical Season

The soloists, the musical director, and the pianist were presented with magnificent bouquets and the sweet compliment was in every case richly deserved. This concert would have ended the concert season for La Crosse had there been enough musical events deserving to be named. As it is the Normal school chorus was the musical close of the winter season and the beginning of spring. But where is my snow shovel?

STATE TO HELP GAME

ADVISES SCHOOLS TO TEACH CHILDREN FORMS AND VALUE OF FISH AND GAME IN STATE

MADISON, Wis., March 21.—The state of Wisconsin has adopted a policy of education for its people upon the necessity of protection and preservation of the fish and game in state waters. E. C. Cleasby, formerly of Portage, and a former teacher and county superintendent, has begun a series of talks to teachers and school children throughout the state to emphasize the need of education relative to animal life, its forms, values and methods. Later he will lecture before teachers' institutes. Teachers are urged to instruct their pupils in this subject.

Mr. Cleasby, a graduate of the Stevens Point state normal school, spoke recently before a teachers' convention for Waupaca and Outagamie counties, and the convention later adopted resolutions unanimously approving his address and recommending the extension of the plan as far as is practical. The resolutions declare that "this work is, in our judgment, even more practical and valuable than is the exercise of the police power of this state department." The resolutions are signed by C. B. Stanley, principal of the Waupaca county training school; W. E. Switzer, superintendent of schools for Waupaca county, and A. G. Meating, superintendent of schools for Outagamie county.

WANT CHILD BUREAU

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 21.—Following a meeting of the national board of the Mothers' Congress today Mrs. Frederick Schoff, president of the congress, gave her formal endorsement to the establishment of a national children's bureau in Washington. A bill providing for the establishment of such a bureau has passed the senate, and the Mothers' Congress will use all influence possible toward getting the bill before President Taft for his signature. The bill now before the house provides that the children's bureau should be placed under the department of commerce and labor. Many members of the congress assert they believe such a bureau should be under the department of education.
